Completing a persuasive piece - how to be respectful (link to Anti-bully drama) Editing our Fuzzle writing 'Reading' a picture and predicting who the main character in a story might be Retrieval comprehension questions
Maths	Problem solving with addition and subtraction Missing numbers in a number sentence (using the inverse) Revisiting place value to help order numbers in ascending and descending order Numbots and doubling digits to 10 Directional maths (link to computing) Counting the vertices on 3D shapes
Science	A hands on starter activity to our new topic: How materials used to create an object will result in a different outcome - investigating objects and their uses.
Other Subjects:	PE: Gymnastics and using balance and height to help with jumping with a rope in PE. Art: Decorating a plate for part of the Christmas display. Creating a nativity scene for our warm backgrounds. Music: Nativity songs. PSHE: Creating new logos for our whole school rules. Discussing how to be responsible water users. RE: What did Jesus do that showed he was God on Earth?
Other information	SPELLING SHED - please continue to practise spelling rules with fun games and challenges a handwriting sheet of the weeks words are sent home on Monday afternoons. Well done to all who are reading daily and recording in reading records. Remember to aim to do this at least 4 times a week. The benefits of daily reading are seen in all areas of the curriculum. Please ensure all nativity lines are committed to memory - so many of you have done this already and we are so impressed with your confident delivery. I've set two pieces of maths (linked to subtraction unit just completed). Please aim to complete these by 6 December. PE days are Tuesday (gym) and Thursday (balances and jumps). Please come to school wearing PE kits on both days. As the weather becomes cooler please remember to wear a waterproof coat, bring wellies and hats & gloves too! Boots are needed to access the field. Thank you for the Shoe boxes and kitchen rolls. Please continue to send these in.  For Nativity - please can you be ready to wear either dark coloured leggings or tracksuit bottoms on the days of Nativity.  NATIVITY TICKETS at the moment limited to just 2 per family in total (so we can accommodate all families in KS1). Any additional available tickets will be available after first allocation complete and Mrs Taylor will inform parents.
