Wow, what a term - couple of terms actually! I think we can all agree that it's certainly been different (unique) and a little crazy. But we made it!

It's been hard work for everyone involved, however most of the credit has to go to the children. They may have missed out on a few of the Year 6 traditions, it has certainly been difficult for them, yet every day they come into school smiling. We all laugh and smile and the work has been fantastic (certainly not 6 months behind like the government suggests).

So a huge well done to everyone; it's now Christmas time! I hope you all have an amazing break and some well-deserved fun.

Merry Christmas!

Mr. J and the Year 6 team.
