Homework

I'm afraid there is some holiday homework - for both children and adults! The task is to dig out a "First Day" photo. Don't worry if you haven't got an exact first day, it can just be a photo from around the age of 4/5 years old. This will be a part of our Leavers Book and End of Year Service. Please either email them to me on kieran.johnston@barham.kent.sch.uk or send if any paper copies for me to scan.

Have a lovely week off everyone - one more term to go!
