Eagles Class Overview

Reading	Why we observe Remembrance, In Flanders Fields
English	This week we have been writing poems for the Remembrance service using key vocabulary and rhyming couplets. Some of the children have completed their 500 words entry which will be submitted today.
Maths	We have started the Multiplication and Division unit. This week we have been learning multiples and common multiples
Creative Maths	£500 firework challenge
IT	Canva, digital art
Science	What evidence shows the earth is spherical?
Art	Creating poppy patterns in the style of William Morris
PE	Golf- control and distance. Handball- passes
PSHE	All about cultures
Spellings for this week	Individual spellings coming home today Class spellings: root word 'ough', fought, thought,
Music	We have been listening to 'The Planets' in preparation for next weeks lesson
Handwriting	Scheme spellings
SPaG	How to use adverbs
RE	The Fall- The story of Adam and Eve
Extra	Well done to all the children that have attempted the 500 words challenge! A message from The Beaney. Canterbury: This coming Saturday we are running a completely free afternoon of events at The Beaney, including a book swap for children and teenagers, Bookish Board Games of all sorts, for all ages, and collaborative storytelling art projects as part of the Canterbury Storymakers. It's for kids and teens of all ages and will also be fun for adults and runs between 12 and 4.30pm.