

This Week's News

Welcome back to our final term of the year!

Finally, the party snacks on the field which was followed by dancing. It was a truly memorable day which I hope the children will always remember.

Jacob and Alfie (Eagles) came back to school to find letters from Prince William and Prince Edward waiting for them. The princes loved their Victoria Sponge recipes with a twist!
