

This Week's News

A huge well done to our amazing Hawks Class who have completed their SATs. They have been a real credit to the school with their cheerful and enthusiastic attitude this week. Thank you Hawks for being such good role models to the younger children.

Wrens are enjoying their first lessons in the swimming pool. One of the activities this week was a race from one side of the pool to the other.

Here are our new school council reps. They have had a couple of meetings this term to discuss new ideas for playtimes. We now have several new games and activities chosen by the reps for children to enjoy outside.

Eagles have been learning about Islam this term. One of our parents, Mrs Khan, (pictured here with one of her daughters) gave a talk to the children about her visit to Mecca. Her presentation gave a fascinating insight into this important pilgrimage.
