

This week's News

The whole school was thoroughly entertained on Friday with the KS2 Talent Show. We had musicians, dancers, singers, comedians, gymnasts and puppeteers performing in front of the school.

There are so many talented children at Barham! Well done to all who took part including the Y6 compères. More photos will be published on the website soon.

Elfridges was as busy as ever on Tuesday. The children had a great time choosing presents for family members. Thank you to the elves who wrapped the gifts so beautifully.

The choir sang Christmas carols at Barham's Coffee Stop and at the Gulbenkian theatre on Tuesday as part of the Canterbury rural schools choir.

Both events were enjoyed by the audience and put everyone in a festive mood.

Our delicious Christmas dinner on Wednesday was a riot of colour with some very original Christmas hats. We certainly have some creative children at Barham!
