

This week's News

The children entered the hall on Monday with gasps and smiles as they discovered the hall had been beautifully decorated using their Christmas art work. This year the theme was linked to artists they are studying.

Our Key Stage 2 children enjoyed the 'peace and reflection' workshops organised by Katy, one of our visiting ministers, on Tuesday. The focus was on joy and thankfulness. The children impressed us all with their reflections of the year.

Pantomime Trip

All children will need to have a packed lunch, a water bottle and snack (not chocolate) for the pantomime trip to the Marlowe next Thursday.
