

This week's News

Classes have been busy creating new art for the outside display boards.

Top left is Jays' board on 'Chiaroscuro' and the effect of cold and warm colours. Top right is the Eagles' board, 'Waves', inspired by the sculptor, Denise Romecki and the artist, Katsushika Hokusai. Finally above is Wrens' board on their topic of heroes. We hope you will be able to view all the stunning displays during the drop-in session later this term.

Robins' Church Visit

On Wednesday, Robins walked to the church to identify different types of rocks in the churchyard. This is linked to this term's study of archaeology.
