

This week's News

We were delighted to welcome back Ian, from KIC theatre this week. Every class took part in a drama workshop based on the class topic for this term. Pictures show Jays (left) and Puffins (right).

Today we have been celebrating European Day of Languages. The sixth form 'Language Ambassadors', from Folkestone School for Girls, organised workshops for our pupils. These included: making Spanish omelette, Greek dancing, Spanish vocab games and French artwork. More photos will be uploaded to the website shortly. Huge thanks to our visitors and Mrs Gooderham for organising this special day.

School Council Reps

School council reps have been chosen for each class from Jays to Hawks. Our first meeting next week will be about how we can save energy at school. The reps will also choose new resources for playtimes.
