

This week's News

Four pupils from Year 5 attended the Junior Kings Maths Challenge last Thursday, competing against schools from across the Canterbury District. The children all said they enjoyed the experience of working in pairs on various maths challenges.

A group of runners from Years 4, 5 and 6 attended the TSC Mini Marathon last weekend. They completed a 2.6 km route around St James's Park and Buckingham Palace.

Robins wish to thank Philip (Hawks) and his family for showing them Barham Court as they investigated the history of Sir Reginald FitzUrse! They discovered that he stayed in the manor on these grounds the night before he took part in the assassination of Thomas

Becket in 1170.

Carter, along with all the other budding pizza chefs in Hawks, had a fantastic time at Pizza Express on Wednesday. The children were taught the secrets of making the best pizzas.
