

This week's News

Wrens and Jays and an exciting day out at Wildwood last Friday. They listened attentively to the talks and asked some brilliant questions.

Big Band Day took place on Tuesday. Pupils from Wickhambreaux and Simon Langton joined our musicians to create one big band. After practising all day, the children entertained the school and parents with some very catchy tunes. Thank you to Mrs Washington for organising the day.

Barham's football team played in a tournament against three other schools in Shepherdswell this week. They played brilliantly and were delighted to come second.

Here are Hawks in Folkestone on Wednesday. It was a day of fun at the beach following their successful enterprise week.
