

This Week's News

Eagles (Y5) took part in the Big Garden Bird Watch on Friday in the school grounds. They loved listening out for birdsong and recording the birds they saw, especially the cheeky blackbirds who hopped closely around the children.

Barham's Eco Warriors led an assembly on Tuesday encouraging everyone to make just one small change for the good of our planet. This active group have also been litter-picking on the school grounds during their break time.

Robins (Y3) visited church on Thursday for a special Christingle Service arranged by Rev T. The children made their own Christingles and discovered the symbolism of the orange, red ribbon, candle and sweets.
