

This Week's News

What a week! Pancake races, forest school sessions and World Book Day all in the same week!

There was a nail-biting finish to the annual pancake race this year. As can be seen in the photos above, pupils were ahead by some distance but in the final seconds were overtaken by the teachers. In the next race, the pancake flipping relay, pupils were in the lead from the start and held on to their position winning comfortably. Well done to all our participants. It was a lot of fun to watch.

On World Book Day the school was transformed as various book characters walked through the school gates. The children recited their class poems in a special assembly at the end of the day with both confidence and enjoyment. Please ask your child to recite their poem to you and don't forget to share your favourite poem with your child too.

Thank you Eagles!

Eagles (Y5) have done an amazing job this week clearing the Quiet Garden area and building a willow fence behind the outdoor classroom. Thank you for your hard work, Eagles.
