

Guess the Teacher!

What is your earliest memory? Moving house when I was 4 and not wanting to leave my mum's side even though I nearly got buried under the piles of boxes!

Were you naughty when you were younger? Only towards my little sister! I used to encourage her to pull silly faces on family photos with me and then smile sweetly and innocently. We've still got photos to prove it!

What was the best thing about school? In primary school: projects. I did one on horses and another one on the history of Hythe. I've still got them!

What was the worst thing about school? The lunch hall. I was terrified of the noise and managed to persuade my mum that I could come home for lunch whilst she was at home with my younger sister.

Were you ever told off? Not until I got to secondary school ... I was very shy in primary school.

Who was your best friend at school? My very best friend at primary school was Julia. We used to go to each other's houses for tea.

What did you want to be when you grew up? I think I wanted to be a Blue Peter presenter.... and then an actress!

What was your favourite food? Definitely beans on toast...I used to lick the plate clean when no one was looking! (Oh, so I was naughty after all!)

Did you like school dinners? NO

Did you like your teachers? I loved one of my primary school teachers who had a stuffed turtle on his wall. He used to talk to him and make him answer with a funny voice. Had us all in stitches!

What were you frightened of when you were a child? Noise and going into shops and having to ask for something on my own...I told you I was very shy.

What colour was your school uniform? Green and grey at primary school.

What was your favourite subject? Drama, English and Art.

Did you always do your homework? Yes, I think I did...but memory can play tricks!

What was your favourite animal? My cat, Cindy and my piano teacher's labrador, Sean.
