This week's news

Fairy Tree

Exciting News at Barham Primary School! After the festive break, our students were delighted to discover some magical new residents in our tree stump. Fairies have made themselves at home, and their whimsical doorways have been captivating our pupils. The sight of these enchanting creatures has brought countless smiles to our school community.

A Tranquil Retreat for Lunchtime!

Our children have found a peaceful escape with Colouring Club. During lunchtimes, they gather in the art room, and immerse themselves in the joy of colouring. It's a wonderful opportunity for them to find a moment of calm amidst the excitement of their day. Classes have a designated time slot on a rotating basis. They can unwind and recharge before returning to their afternoon lessons.

Attendance Ted

Congratulations to Hawks class who had the highest attendance last week.
