This week's news

Christingle

Robins class had a great experience at the church this week. They had the opportunity to make Christingles with Rev T.

Traditionally, Christingle services are held from the end of November through to February, encompassing the period from Advent to Candlemas. The children really enjoyed their visit.

French Penpals

Owls class said hello to their French penpals - this is a new link with an infant school in Northern France! We look forward to sharing art work, songs and stories with them!

Wrens

There have been lots of exciting and varied activities in Wrens class this week. They painted police cars in preparation for an upcoming visit from the Police next week.

They have been measuring each other using cubes and exploring shapes.

Mrs Morgan's tortoise and Mrs Duhig's dog also paid a visit!

The nurse, who came to do vision and hearing tests with Wrens, said, "I visit a lot of schools and these children were so well behaved - a delight!".

Bird Feeders

Owls class have made beautiful poppy bird feeders. Well done Owls!
