

This week's News

Music is in the air at Barham as preparations for the Spring Concert begin. With Mrs Washington's enthusiastic support, our talented band members are rehearsing for their performance.

We held our annual KS2 Inter-house Music Competition this week, which involves Year 6 taking on the role of leaders in their respective houses. Each group, consisting of Year 3 to Year 6 pupils, created a musical composition to a Mr Bean film clip. Our Chair of Governors, Prof Tim Hopthrow, had the impossible task of judging each House's performance. A huge congratulations to Marlowe house for clinching the title this year and demonstrating excellent musical talent. A big thanks and well done to the Year 6 leaders, Mrs Washington and Mrs Gurney.
