ANNOUNCEMENTS

Gosh there are so many things to announce: for instance the Year 6's did their SATs and had a lovely time on the field to celebrate. Well done to Year 2 who also completed their SATs this week, everyone was amazing! Let's not forget the hard working people that helped make the Lion King production happen and all those wonderful singers – we can't wait for the show next week! Finally, well done to Year 3 for taking part in the golf tournament. Some quick reminders from our school council, take care of the colouring and the toys, and make sure to keep everything on the mat.

Have a good weekend Barham <3
